

Mini-CV: Rob Woodward

Rob has held leadership positions as Chair, NED and CEO across both public and private companies. Since early on in his career he has specialised in the TMT sector. Appointed by the UK Government he has been Chair of the Met Office since 2018, a role he will relinquish this year after two terms. His experience includes over 10 years as Chief Executive Officer of STV Group plc. He had previously been Commercial Director at Channel 4 Television, Managing Director with UBS Corporate Finance and lead partner for Deloitte's Telecoms, Media & Technology Industry Group in Europe.

Rob is also currently Chair of Court at Glasgow Caledonian University and Chair of listed marketing analytics provider, Ebiquity plc. As Chair he oversaw the sale of technology company Blancco plc last year to US private equity.
